

Hats of all kinds

22 May 1995

Question: What kind of hat do you wear?¹⁹⁹

Kind of Hat:

Webster Reference or Other Ref

Sombrero

p 1357

Bowler

Cowboy $\left\{ \begin{array}{l} \text{felt} - 10\text{-gal} \\ \text{straw} \end{array} \right.$

helmet

hood

Bonnet

Beret

Crown

R.C.Ch. = official Red hat of a cardinal or Rank or position of Cardinal skull cap

Stove-pipe hat =

Derby

Stetson

Turban

Fez

Phrases:

Do off the hat

hatted } to provide one with a hat

hatting }

Do off the hat

hat in hand = in a humble or obsequious manner take one's hat off = salute or congratulate talk through one's hat = to make foolish or irresponsible statements throw one's hat into the ring = to enter a contest

under one's hat = confidential or secret

Duplicity of therapy	Concurrent salicylates or NSAIDs	No clinical data indicates an advantage of using NSAIDs with a salicylate or multiple NSAIDs.
Drug-drug interactions	Cyclosporine	↑ nephrotoxicity
	Anticoagulants, oral Thrombolytic agents Heparin	prolong PT, ↑ risk of GI bleed
	Beta blockers	↓ antihypertensive effect
	Ranitidine, Cimetidine	variable effect of NSAIDs serum concentration
	High-dose Corticosteroids (Controversial)	↑ severity and incidence of GI ulceration
	Loop diuretics	↓ diuretic and natriuretic effect
	Thiazide diuretics	↓ efficacy
	Phenytoin Lithium High-dose Methotrexate	↑ serum concentration of these drugs
	Salicylates	↓ serum concentration of NSAIDs
	Probenecid	↑ serum concentration of NSAIDs
	Theoretical Risks ACE Inhibitors Triamterene Digoxin Plicamycin Valproic Acid Cefamandole Cefoperazone Cefotetan Moxalactam	